Adolescents are at increased risk of getting some serious infectious diseases but vaccines can protect them from more than a dozen potentially deadly diseases, including:

- Meningitis
- Hepatitis
- Human papillomavirus (HPV)

Talk to your child's healthcare provider today about vaccination Visit adolescentvaccination.org for more information

Remember, vaccination doesn't stop at school entry!

